

Country	Name of course	Educational institution	Level of Education And Discipline
Armenia	„Consumer Protection and Healthcare in EU“	Yerevan State University Law Department	Graduate law
	„Law and Health“	Yerevan State Medical University	3 rd year dental, 4th year general medicine students, medical residents
	„Health Law“	National Institute of Health	Medical residents	Course moved to Yerevan State Medical University
	„Patients’ Rights“	Erebuni College, Nursing Faculty	Medical college 1 st course
	„Patients’ Rights“	Base College, Nursing faculty	Medical college graduate course
Georgia	„Health Law: Health and Human Rights“	Georgian Institute of Public Affairs (GIPA), Faculty of Law	Graduate law – Master degree (Mandatory from 2007)	40 students per year
	„Health Law“	Georgian Institute of Public Affairs (GIPA)	Short courses: doctors and health managers	Enrollment varies
	„Health Law“	Tbilisi State University, Faculty of Law	Graduate law- Master degree (Mandatory since 2008)	180 students per year
	„Health Law“	Tbilisi State Medical University, Faculty of Public Health	Master degree (Mandatory since 2008)	15 students per year
	„Health Law“	Georgian-American University Faculty of Law	Elective course since 2009	15 students per year
	Kazakhstan	“Medical Law”	Kazakhstan School of Public Health	Second year master students
“Law in Public Health”		Kazakhstan School of Public Health	First year master students
“Law in Sphere of Health Protection” ; “”Legislation in Health Care”; “Legal Basics of Bioethics”		Kazakh Medical University of Continuing Education	Undergraduate Medical
“Legislation in Health Care”		Same as above	Medical residents
“Legal Regulation in the Sphere of Health Care”		Same as above	Postgraduate / Continuing education for practical medical workers

Kyrgyzstan	“Legal Framework for Citizens’ Health Protection in the Kyrgyz Republic”	Kyrgyz State Medical Institute of Retraining and Raising Professional Skills	Medical postgraduate: health managers and decision-makers
	“Legal Protection of Citizens’ Health”	Kyrgyz-Russian Slavic University, Faculty of Law	Civil law students; mandatory
Macedonia	“Law and Public Health”	University of Sts. Cyril and Methodius, Faculties of Law and Medicine/Center for Public Health	Graduate law and Master of Public Health (MPH) students	Textbook prepared by course faculty
Moldova	“Human Rights and Health”	Nicolae Testemitanu State University of Medicine and Pharmacy, School of Public Health Management	Master of Public Health Management; mandatory	Textbook prepared by faculty: Health and Human Rights (2011) in Romanian and English; 2012–2013: 44 students
	“Human Rights in Biomedical Research”	Nicolae Testemitanu State University of Medicine and Pharmacy	PhD; mandatory	2012–2013: 80 students
Russia	“Medical Law”	St. Petersburg Medical Academy for Postgraduate Studies (MAPS); Merged into North-Western State Medical University Mechnikov in 2011	Postgraduate students: doctors, nurses, health managers	Three books prepared by faculty: Topics in Patients’ Rights in Russia; Human Rights and Public Health: Conflict of Individual Rights and Common Good and Ways to Solve It; Right to Receive and Keep Information: Confidentiality, Informed Consent and Compliance
	“Health Law”	St. Petersburg MAPS	Postgraduate medical	Follow-up to original MAPS course (above)
	“Health Law for Law Students”	St. Petersburg MAPS and Inter-regional Institute for Law and Economics	Law students	Short course: 1 week (36 hours)
	“Teaching Health Law”	St. Petersburg MAPS	Postgraduate course for teachers of medical and public health law	Including pedagogical models for teaching health law (72 hours)

	"Patient Rights and Physician Responsibilities"	St. Petersburg MAPS	Staff members of health care organizations and facilities	Series of 3 seminars, requested for co-workers by participants of the original MAPS course
Serbia	"Law, Human Rights, and Patient Care"	University of Belgrade, Faculty of Medicine, Institute of Social Medicine	Fifth-year medical students	Handbook prepared by faculty: Human Rights and the Protection of Patient Health ; submitted for inclusion on list of literature for graduate and postgraduate education
	"Human Rights and Public Health"	Same as above	Continuing education	For interdisciplinary teams of doctors, nurses, social workers, economists, and others
	"Rights, Duties and Responsibilities of Health Professionals in Relation to the Rights of Patients"	Same as above	Continuing education	Same as above
	"Health of Minority Groups and Access to Essential Medicines"	Same as above	Continuing education	Same as above
Ukraine	"Medical Law"	National Medical University after O.O. Bogomolets (Department of Social Medicine and Healthcare)	Students of medical universities of 3rd and 4th accreditation levels	Piloted for future teaching in all medical universities in Ukraine
	"Medical Law of Ukraine"	Danylo Halytsky Lviv National Medical University, Faculty of Postgraduate Education	Medical and postgraduate students	